It was a sunny hot day when Arthur and his brother moved to a big creepy house in the middle of nowhere

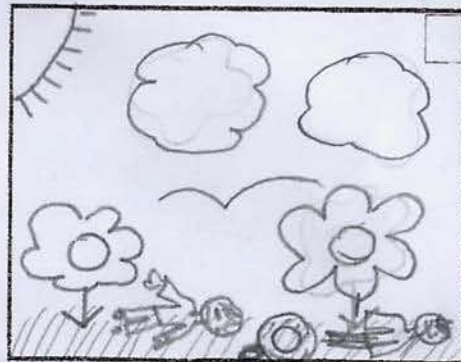

Arthur was obsessed with video games while his brother Albert loved the outdoors. Arthur played video games
24-7

While Arthur was in the middle of a game the TV screen went black. Arthur's game system broke.

Since Arthur's game system broke he had nothing to do but go out and explore with his brother.

The 2 boys were having lots of fun playing outside. While they were rolling in the grass Arthur finds a weird kind of eyeglass.

They decided to sit on a rock to have a rest. While resting Arthur fell asleep. Albert was positive that Arthur was dreaming.

Arthur had a huge dream about Faeries and goblins

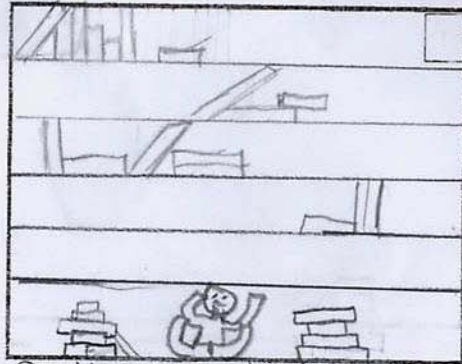

When he woke up he and his brother started to head home. It was Albert's turn to play with the eye glass.

All of a sudden Albert spotted something very odd. The monster took Albert and the last thing Arthur heard was T. an mulgarath a shape shifting ogre.

One week later an article was written that Albert was abducted by a bear but only Arthur knew the truth.

Arthur did his research & he has got lots of books

Arthur is checking to see if his research was true so he sets up the money.
