Student Worksheet - Art

Art – The Setting in a Story

1. Pick one of the pieces of art on the board and describe the “setting” of the picture. Do not focus on the people but on the setting. Where is the ‘action’ or ‘story’ taking place? How does the setting make you feel?

_____

_____

_____

2. Use the same piece of art to write a short “3-minute” story (like we do in Power Writing”) based on what you see in the picture. Make sure your story makes sense based on what you can see.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

3. Create a new piece of art that provides a continuation to the story you created. What would the next “setting” in your story look like? Create the art and then explain it here.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____